The week before Easter is called Holy Week. The days of observance are both Good Friday and Easter Sunday. In the life of a Christ follower, it is a week of devout observance, commemorating the Passion and Jesus' death on the Cross. Consider these questions:

> If Jesus were to ask you right now, "What do you want?", what would your answer be? Write it down in a journal and put it somewhere so you can read it one year from now.

> What represents security for you? How is Jesus asking you to drop it?

For prayer and meditation:

Everyday this week, close your eyes, upturn your palms, and pray, "Abba, I belong to You." Don't make it anything more than that; it's enough... you will see.

Invite friends to the Good Friday gathering and/or the Easter gatherings.
