Colossians 3:1-10

1. What are the shadows you find yourself drawn too? Why? As you encounter the real Jesus, what irritations do you sense? What do you believe Jesus wants from you? What are you prepared to do about it?

2. If money were no object, what would you do? Why would you do it? Passion is what keeps us awake at night, it gets us out of bed in the morning. Where in your life are you living out your passion? Where can you best put your passion to use in the city of Seattle? In your neighborhood? In your home?

3. "Multitudes of Christ followers are looking for someone to tell them what to think."
-Neil Cole

I like this quote because it is very telling of what needs to happen in churches all over America. It is so important that we are reading the Bible and hearing from God ourselves. It is so important that we are taking time to pray and talk with God regularly and intentionally. Read Philippians 4:4-9, write down observations and questions you could use to teach someone this passage. If you are willing, share your thoughts with someone, let others hear what God's Spirit is speaking to you about. As a follow up, please tell me how it went, I would enjoy learning from you and hearing your story. (bill@believedoubtseek.org)
